

Salt Lake City
Small Business Resource Guide

Economic Development Division
Robert Farrington, Director
Salt Lake City Corporation
451 South State Street, Room 404
PO Box 145484
Salt Lake City, Utah 84114
www.slcgov.com/ED

Dear SLC Small Business Owner or Entrepreneur,

We appreciate your contribution to making Salt Lake City a center for commerce, creativity, and sustainable neighborhoods. This crossroads of the West is built on the hard work and entrepreneurial skill of its citizens. You know best how to run your business, and we want to help. In an effort to do that we've assembled useful local resources in this Small Business Guide that are available to you from Salt Lake City and other civic and community organizations. The Small Business Guide is designed to help begin, maintain, and grow your business.

What challenges does your business face? Most likely an organization included in this guide knows how to help. Whether you've just started or been in business for twenty years, the business support environment here is always responding to the changing needs of businesses and business owners like you.

Successful businesses are built upon principles of knowledge, partnership, and community. This guide can help with all three. Salt Lake City is eager to support businesses that recognize the importance of creating vibrant communities. Please utilize these tools with the understanding that by working together we can make Salt Lake City a great city for business.

Sincerely,

Ralph Becker
Mayor

Bob Farrington
Economic Development Director

Salt Lake City Corporation

Department of Community and Economic Development

451 South State Street, Rm. 404

Salt Lake City, UT 84114

(801) 535-6230

Frank Gray, Director

<http://www.slcced.com>

The Department of Community and Economic Development provides leadership, policies, and programs that promote strong, vibrant neighborhoods and communities and proactively encourage the positive and orderly growth and development of the City. Departments include: Building Services and Licensing, House and Neighborhood Development, Arts Council, Planning and Zoning, Economic Development, and Transportation.

Office of Economic Development

451 South State Street, Rm. 401

PO Box 145486

Salt Lake City UT 84114

(801) 535-6230

Bob Farrington, Director

<http://www.slcced.com/ED/>

The Office of Economic Development works to promote sustainable economic growth by advocating for city and community resources, developing strategic and cohesive development goals, and serving Salt Lake City residents and business owners in improving the economic viability of their neighborhoods. This office is responsible for coordinating resources to serve the business community in guiding them through the process of doing business in and with the City.

Mayor's Office

P.O Box 145474

Salt Lake City, UT 84114

(801) 535-7704

<http://www.slcced.com/mayor/>

City Council

PO Box 145476

Salt Lake City, UT 84114

(801) 535-7600

<http://www.slcced.com/council/>

Planning and Zoning Department

451 S. State Street, Rm. 406

PO Box 145480

Salt Lake City UT 84114

(801) 535-7757

Wilford Sommerkorn, Director

<http://www.slcced.com/CED/planning/>

The Planning Department's duties include developing master plans to provide vision and goals for future development in the City, creating and implementing the City's Zoning Ordinance to ensure that minimum development standards are met, creating and implementing the subdivision ordinance to ensure the division of land is carried out in a way to ensure adequate sized lots for development and access to the property, and protecting historically important neighborhoods and sites in the City for existing and future citizens.

Transportation Division
349 South 200 East, Suite 450
PO Box 145502
Salt Lake City UT 84114-5502
(801) 535-6630
Tim Harpst, Director
<http://www.slcgov.com/transportation/>

The Transportation Division mission is to provide a safe and efficient multi-modal transportation system for the movement of people and goods and for the vitality of the community. It is responsible for the determination of necessity and the placement of all traffic control devices on Salt Lake City streets. This department serves to answer business concerns regarding parking, public transportation development and use, and permit requirements.

Business Licensing
451 South State Street, Rm. 225
PO Box 145458
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 535-6644
Orion Goff, Director
http://www.slcced.com/pages/building_business.htm

The Business Licensing Division grants and renews business licenses for large and small business located in the incorporated Salt Lake City area in order to ensure proper regulation. All businesses, permanent or temporary, must possess the necessary licensures or risk fines.

Building Services
451 South State Street, Rm. 215
PO Box 145490
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 535-7752
Orion Goff, Director
<http://www.slcgov.com/CED/buildzone/pages/fees.htm>

The Building Services Division is responsible for ensuring that all state and local codes are adhered to. It serves the community by providing site plan reviews, zoning information, zoning maps, and the City's Zoning Ordinance. This office is also responsible for the dispensation of building, plumbing, electrical, and mechanical permits.

Office of Sustainability and Environment
451 South State Street, Rm. 145
P.O Box 145454
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 535-6540
Vicki Bennett, Director
<http://www.slcgreen.com/e2business/default.htm>

This Office administers an environmentally and economically sustainable (e2) business program that is designed to recognize and support the Salt Lake City business community and economy. Benefits include: Cost savings from reduced resource use, ability to attract new customers and increase customer loyalty, free advertising purchased through grants and other funding sources of the Salt Lake City Green program, earned media, reduced advertising costs in the City Weekly, Catalyst Magazine, and the new ReDirect Guide, free consultation with Salt Lake City staff experts, use of the e2 brand, and the knowledge that your business is contributing in a positive way to the environment and community.

Redevelopment Agency
451 South State Street, Room 418
P.O. Box 145518
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 535-7240
D.J Baxter, Director
<http://www.slcrda.com/>

The Redevelopment Agency of Salt Lake City exists to improve blighted areas of Salt Lake City, encourage economic development of Salt Lake City, and encourage the development of housing for low and moderate income households within Salt Lake City. The RDA provides financing to encourage private investment as well as relocation and retention assistance to existing businesses in targeted areas. Loans, tax rebates, and grants are available to qualified businesses and individuals.

Office of Diversity
PO Box 145474
Salt Lake City, UT 84114-5474
(801) 535-7734
Yolanda Francisco-Nez, Director
<http://www.slcgov.com/mayor/divHR/whatwedo.htm>

The Mayor's Office of Diversity serves resident's of Salt Lake City of diverse religions, backgrounds, and lifestyles. It advocates and educates such individuals to provide them access to business development and operating resources.

Communication Department
Mayor's Office
P.O Box 145474
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 535-6244
Helen Langan, Director
<http://www.slcgov.com/mayor/pages/commun.htm>

The Mayor's communication team works to develop an open dialogue between the Mayor's Office and the residents of Salt Lake City and all relevant press and media inquiries. Constituent Services and media development are divisions of the Communications Office.

Public Utilities
1530 South West Temple
Salt Lake City, UT 84115
(801) 483-6900
<http://www.slcgov.com/utilities/default.htm>

The Public Utilities Department administers the regulation and development of drinking water, storm water, and sewer water systems for Salt Lake City residents and businesses. For specific water needs businesses can seek information from this department with inquiries regarding water line mapping, usage costs, and expansion plans.

Arts Council
54 Finch Lane
Salt Lake City UT 84102
(801) 596-5000
Nancy Boskoff, Director
<http://www.slcgov.com/arts/>

The Arts Council serves the Salt Lake City community by providing high quality art experiences in a range of settings and venues. Information regarding promotion, distribution, event planning, and development of art and artistic resources is available from this council.

Special Events
Parks Division
Department of Public Services
(801) 972-7800
Val Pope, Director
<http://www.slcgov.com/publicservices/Parks/permits.htm>

For special event planning in any park, square or plaza in Salt Lake City all businesses and individuals must first receive approval from the Park's Division. Information regarding special permits (including filming), reservations, liability insurance, etc. is available upon request.

Environmental Health Services
Bureau of Food Protection
Salt Lake Valley Health Department
2001 South State Street, S-2500
Salt Lake City, UT 84190
(801) 313-6620
Bryce Larsen, Director
<http://www.slvhealth.org/eh/food/index.html>

The Bureau of Food Protection develops and enforces policies to administer state and local policies on the preparation and use of food in commercial settings. This Bureau is responsible for conducting inspections and responding to complaints, providing educational opportunities for permit holders and food workers, and performing plan reviews to advise establishments that are under construction of food preparation requirements.

Chambers of Commerce

A chamber of commerce is a voluntary association whose membership is comprised of companies, civic leaders, and individual business people. Its members seek to promote the interests of business through educational programming, networking, special events, publications, task forces, and more.

Latin-American Chamber of Commerce
5663 South Redwood Rd.
Taylorsville, UT 84123
(801) 266-2828
www.lacc-ut.org

Utah Black Chamber of Commerce
1747 South 900 West
Salt Lake City, UT 84104
(801) 973-7932
www.utahblackchamber.org

Pacific Islander Chamber of Commerce
313 East 900 South
Salt Lake City, Utah 84111
www.pacificislanderchamber.org

Utah Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
1635 South Redwood Road
Salt Lake City, UT 84104
(801) 532-3308
www.utahhcc.com

Salt Lake Chamber
175 East 400 South, Suite 600
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 364-3631
www.saltlakechamber.org

Utah Native American Chamber of Commerce
(801) 533-9503
www.utahnativeamericanchamber.com

Utah Asian Chamber of Commerce
3123 South Redwood Road
West Valley City, UT 84119
(801) 915-6333
www.utahasianchamber.org

Other Resources

Better Business Bureau
5673 South Redwood Road, #22
Salt Lake City, UT 84123
(801) 892-6009
www.utah.bbb.org

BBB is a private, non-profit organization that works to solve consumer/business problems and provides tools and reports on the local business climate. Through the support of their accredited businesses, BBBs work for an ethical marketplace by maintaining standards for truthful advertising, investigating and exposing fraud against consumers and businesses and providing information to consumers before they purchase products and services.

David Eccles School of Business
University of Utah
Kendall D. Garff Bldg
1645 E Campus Center Dr Rm. 101
Salt Lake City, Utah 84112
<http://www.business.utah.edu/index.php>

The DESB, in addition to its degree programs, also coordinates business initiatives with emphasis on entrepreneurship, technology industry development, innovation and more in collaboration with the Governor's Office of Economic Development and private donors. Resources and mentorship opportunities are available to assist in the stimulation of Utah's business community.

Division of Corporations and Commercial Code
Heber Wells Building
160 East 300 South
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 530-4849
<http://corporations.utah.gov/>

The Division of Corporations and Commercial Code serves business enterprises by providing registration and informational assistance. Additionally, the Division serves the public by facilitating access to all of its records and data. The Division functions as Utah's filing office and repository for all corporations, commercial code filings, business registrations, limited partnerships, limited liability companies, limited liability partnerships, collection agencies, and trademarks.

Downtown Alliance
175 East 400 South, #600
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 359-5118
www.downtownslc.org

The Downtown Alliance is a non-profit affiliate of the Salt Lake Area Chamber of Commerce that specifically serves property owners, businesses, and residents of the 40-block Central Business District in Downtown Salt Lake City. It promotes cultural, business, economic, and entertainment programs to enrich the downtown area. The Downtown Alliance publishes economic development data and sponsors community events/initiatives such as the Farmer's Market, Dine O'Round, First Night Salt Lake, and Live Green.

Economic Development Corporation of Utah (EDCU)
201 South Main Street, Suite 2010
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 328-8824
www.edcutah.org

EDCUtah is a public/private partnership, working with state and local government and private industry to attract and grow competitive, high-value companies and spur the development and expansion of local Utah businesses. EDCUtah serves as a comprehensive source of economic data, key public and private contacts, and assistance to companies working to grow their businesses in Utah.

Local First
P.O Box 576
Salt Lake City, UT 84110
(801) 456-1456
www.localfirst.org

Local First works to strengthen communities and local economies by promoting, preserving, and protecting local, independently owned businesses throughout Utah. Membership is free to qualifying businesses (at least 51% ownership by Utah resident(s), who operate independently. Benefits include high profile listing of a business by major search engines, a free listing in a print directory, and "Local First" brand recognition by consumers of the value a business adds to the community.

Miller Business Resource Center
Salt Lake Community College
9750 South 300 West
Sandy, UT 84070
(801) 957-5200
<http://www.slcc.edu/mbrc/>

Is a non-profit comprehensive resource for entrepreneurs seeking high growth. It supports the sharing of valuable resources, educational know-how, and community partnerships to leverage business opportunities. Services they provide include corporate training, sponsorships, conference services and rentals, networking resources, advising—financial, legal, etc.—and market research tools.

Mountain West Venture Group
PO Box 25773
Salt Lake City, UT 84125
(801) 966-1430
info@mwcn.org

MWVG is a subsidiary of the Mountain West Capital Network that provides networking advice and resources to local entrepreneurs.

National Association of Women Business Owners
310 South Main Street, Mezzanine
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 487-4600
www.nawboslc.org

The mission of Salt Lake City's chapter of NAWBO is to provide a vision, a voice, and a forum for women business owners. They offer networking resources, sponsor community events, and arrange partnerships/affiliations to increase awareness of female-owned businesses. Membership benefits include advertising exposure during membership meetings, in newsletter advertisements, or during joint community activities.

Pete Suazo Business Center
960 West 1700 South
Salt Lake City, UT 84104
(801) 521-1709
www.petesuazocenter.org

This center targets the Latino/Hispanic population and other underserved groups by making business resources available. They assist in starting a business through initial feasibility discussions, preparing funding requests, and obtaining legal licenses and permits. They provide a variety of workshops, seminars, and courses in subjects from business law to financial literacy.

Salt Lake City Department of Community and Economic Development
P.O Box 145486
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 535-6230
www.slcgov.com/ced

CED is the branch of the City government with the goal of providing leadership, policies and programs that will promote strong, vibrant neighborhoods and communities and to proactively encourage the positive and orderly growth and development of the City. Businesses must go through this division for planning and zoning concerns, business licenses, targeted development, permits, inspections, and the majority of regulatory measures required in starting a operating a business in Salt Lake City.

Salt Lake Convention & Visitors Bureau
90 S. West Temple
Salt Lake City, UT 84101
801-534-4900
<http://www.visitsaltlake.com/visit/>

Travel/guest oriented small businesses can speak to the SLCB about available contracts to provide goods and services to the visitors of the Salt Lake area.

Salt Lake Public Library
210 East 400 South
Salt Lake City UT 84111
(801) 524-8200
http://www.slclpl.lib.ut.us/home.jsp?parent_id=264&page_id=264

The public library provides numerous business resources including business and investment databases, business periodicals, educational and training seminars, business guides, recommended reading material and helpful websites for owners and entrepreneurs, and meeting room rental.

Salt Lake County Office of Economic Development
2001 South State Street, Suite 2100
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 468-2502
www.econdev.slco.org

This office coordinates with services offered on the state, county, and city levels. With the goal of increasing the number of jobs and investment opportunities through redevelopment, training, and industry emphasis the county offers financial incentives and planning assistance to businesses.

SCORE: Service Corps of Retired Executives
310 South Main Street
Salt Lake City, UT 84101
(801) 746-2269
www.score.org

SCORE is a non-profit, volunteer organization that provides free individual and team counseling at every stage of the small business development and operation process. SCORE matches business experienced volunteers to provide counseling and training services to first-time entrepreneurs and current small business owners.

State of Utah
www.business.utah.gov

This site is a comprehensive resource for all business owners in Utah. Featured instructions on starting, running, relocating, and closing a business are provided along with the One Stop site for the coordinated registration process to receive all necessary state licensures and permits.

U.S Department of Agriculture—Rural Development
124 S. State Street
Salt Lake City, UT 84138
(801) 524-4322

U.S Small Business Administration
Utah District Office
125 South State Street, Rm. 2227
Salt Lake City, UT 84138
(801) 524-3209
www.sba.gov

This local office of the SBA coordinates local resources to train, counsel, finance, and act to illustrate the roadmap of owning and operating a small business in Utah. Affiliated offices serve specific groups including veterans, women, minorities, and others. A wide selection of loan programs and resources are available.

Utah Business Lending Corporation
1196 West South Jordan Parkway
Unit D-B
South Jordan, UT 84095
(801) 654-2213
www.utahbusinesslending.com

This corporation works with The United States Department Of Agriculture, other business banking institutions, the Small Business Administration, and government entities to help arrange financing. They specialize in rural development and unincorporated areas. They offer free business plan development.

Utah Bureau of Economic and Business Research
1645 East Campus Center Drive, Rm. 401
Salt Lake City, UT 84112
(801) 581-6333
www.bibr.utah.edu

The Bureau of Economic and Business Research (BEBR) is an applied research center in the David Eccles School of Business at the University of Utah. BEBR interacts with both private and public entities, conducting independent studies and engaging in sponsored research. Past projects include housing summaries, Sundance Film Festival survey analysis, an economic impact summary for the Convention and Visitor's Bureau, etc. Subscriptions are available for interested parties to the spectrum of reports published by this organization.

Utah Certified Development Company

136 East South Temple, Suite 1770

Salt Lake City, UT 84111

(801) 746-6211

<http://www.utahcdc.com/>

Utah CDC is a Certified Development Company (CDC) that works as a partner with the Small Business Administration (SBA) and a private-sector lender, to assist small businesses in financing up to 90% of the purchase of long-term fixed assets, such as land, building (existing and new construction), and equipment. Primary goals include job creation and public policy changes.

Utah Department of Workforce Services

P.O Box 45249

Salt Lake City, UT 84145

(801) 526-9675

www.jobs.utah.gov

DWS provides tailored information to job seekers and employers to improve economic opportunities. Other items under their jurisdiction include unemployment insurance, child care services, and information for veterans. DWS makes available listings of jobs, workshops and training events, and economic reports.

Utah Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing

(801) 530-6628

www.dopl.utah.gov

DOPL is a division in the Utah Department of Commerce that is legislatively charged to administer and enforce specific laws related to the licensing and regulation of approximately 60 occupations and professions. Information on specific licensures is available to obtain, retain, and register that licensure in order to engage in specific occupations in the state of Utah. Appeals and misconduct violations are also investigated by this division.

Utah Governor's Office of Economic Development

324 South State Street, Suite 500

Salt Lake City, UT 84111

(801) 538-8700

www.goed.utah.gov

The Governor's Office of Economic Development (GOED) charter is based on Governor Huntsman's commitment to economic development statewide. The mandate for this office is to provide rich business resources for the creation, growth and recruitment of companies to Utah and to increase tourism and film production in the state. GOED accomplishes this mission through the administration of programs that are based around industries or "economic clusters". GOED utilizes state resources and private sector contracts to fulfill its mission. They report to the Governor on economic conditions, target the development of specific industries, and work with academic institutions to develop public policy with regard to encouraging Utah's economic health. GOED is also responsible for managing the State's business incentives program.

Utah Individual Development Account Network
AAA Fair Credit Foundation
230 West 200 South, Suite 3104
Salt Lake City, UT 84101
(877) 787-0727
www.uidan.org

The Utah Individual Development Account Network (UIDAN) Program is an investment strategy and multi-faceted financial education program designed to help provide low to moderate income individuals and families with the opportunity, incentive, and institutional support necessary for them to save for and acquire productive assets that promise a higher income, new wealth and self-sufficiency. Through a 1-3 year program applicants must take 8 hours of basic financial training that culminates with opening an account (up to $1,500) that is over time matched with $4,500 in order to achieve first time homeownership, secondary education, or small business capitalization.

Utah Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP)
800 West University Parkway, MS-212
Orem, UT 84058
(801) 863-8637
www.mep.org

The MEP is non-profit arm of the Department of Commerce. Dedicated to serving small and medium-sized manufacturing firms, MEP is client-needs driven (not products-offered driven). Working directly with company management, MEP provides solutions as diverse as sales and marketing, product defect cause analysis, plant layout, technology deployment, and more.

Utah Microenterprise Loan Fund
154 East Ford Avenue, #A
Salt Lake City, UT 84115
(801) 746-1180
www.umlf.com

The Utah Microenterprise Loan Fund is a private, non-profit, multi-bank community development financial institution, (CDFI), whose mission is to provide financing and management support to entrepreneurs in start-up and existing firms that do not have access to traditional funding sources – in particular, those who are socially and economically disadvantaged. UMLF works to help launch or expand small businesses in Utah with loans from $1,000 to $25,000 to help people with low to moderate incomes.

Utah Occupational Safety and Health
160 East 300 South, Suite 300
PO Box 146650
Salt Lake City, UT 84114
(801) 530-6901
<http://laborcommission.utah.gov/UOSH/index.html>

UOSH has the legislative intent to “preserve human resources by providing for the safety and health of workers”. We approach this goal by providing consultation services to private and public sector employer, by providing outreach to employers through our compliance assistance, Voluntary Protection Programs and Safety and Health Achievement Recognition Programs, and by enforcement of occupational safety and health standards through our compliance program activities. UOSH also collects work-related statistics on injuries and illnesses and fatalities in conjunction with the National Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Utah Safety Council
1574 West 1700 South, Suite 2A
Salt Lake City, Utah 84104
(801) 478-7878
www.utahsafetycouncil.org

The Utah Safety Council is a not-for-profit organization established to represent and promote safety and health interests on the highway, on the job and in the home. Throughout its history, the Utah Safety Council has continued to expand programs and services to provide the latest training, videos, educational material and other safety and health resources to business, industry and the community. Occupational safety and training materials are available on a variety of subjects from first aid to radon testing.

Utah Science Technology and Research Initiative (USTAR)
324 South State Street, Suite 500
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 538-8693
ustar@utah.gov
Marketing & Communications
(801) 538-8622
bstoddard@utah.gov

The mission of USTAR is to promote and encourage local commercialization of discoveries and technologies emanating from the state's public research universities, region applied technology centers, colleges, businesses, and entrepreneurs. Their resources interconnect these sites of innovation to support the development of the technology industry in Utah.

Utah Suppliers Development Council
University of Utah Purchasing Department
1901 East South Campus Drive, #151
Salt Lake City, UT 84112
(801) 581-8609
www.usdcutah.com

USDC works to increase the purchase of goods and services by large companies and government entities from woman-owned, HubZone, and veteran-owned companies. They assist in capturing supplier contracts between large firms and small businesses. They also offer networking, training, and conferences.

UTFC Financing Solutions LLC
699 East South Temple, Suite 220
Salt Lake City, UT 84102
(801) 741-4200
www.utfc.biz

UTFC is a Small Business Investment Company licensed by SBA. They invest in small companies throughout the region by providing subordinated debt to start-up and growing businesses. UTFC is focused on information technology, but invests in a wide range of companies from manufacturing to services. To ensure the long-term success of the companies it finances, UTFC monitors each company's progress and offers technical assistance in critical areas of business management.

Utah Transit Authority (UTA)
Disadvantaged Business Enterprise
Utah Transit Authority
Civil Rights Office
P.O Box 30810
Salt Lake City, UT 84130
(801) 287-3537

The DBE program has been the Department of Transportation's most important tool for promoting equal opportunity in federal transportation contracting. If you are a small business (as defined by SBA), controlled by minorities or women, gross less than $19.57 million dollars, have owners whose personal net worth is less than $750,000, and provide products or services that could be utilized by a Highway, Transit or Airport agency, then you should learn more about the DBE program.

Vest Pocket Business Coalition
P.O Box 521357
Salt Lake City, UT 84152
(801) 596-8977
www.vestpocket.org

The Vest Pocket Business Coalition is an association of local business owners who want to protect the diversity of our neighborhoods and preserve the choice, texture, and vibrancy that make us communities what they are. They specifically serve local businesses, especially small businesses by offering member benefits that include the following: Advocacy with local government, quarterly Membership Meetings to network and strategize, the Vest Pocket Newsletter, a listing on the web site with links to member web sites, a member calendar of events, and group buying discounts.

Wayne Brown Institute
175 West 200 South, Suite 4002
Salt Lake City, UT 84110
(801) 595-1141
www.venturecapital.org

The Wayne Brown Institute offers entrepreneurs educational and training programs that transfer experience, knowledge, contacts and capital from the world's leading business and financial organizations to promising early-stage, technology based companies.

Women's Business Center
Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce
175 East 400 South, #600
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 328-5066
www.saltlakechamber.org

The Women's Business Center provides entrepreneurial assistance in training and counseling to provide entrepreneurs and small business owners, particularly women, with the critical skills, knowledge, tools and support network to increase their success and positively impact the economic development of their communities. Also provided are a number of SBA specific services that target the development of women-owned businesses.

World Trade Center Utah
175 East 400 South, Suite 609
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
(801) 532-8080
<http://www.wtcut.com/>

WTCU endeavors to bring together public and private sector partnerships to encourage sustained economic growth by guiding Utah companies into global markets. They offer a combination of educational lectures, international business development events, and networking opportunities. Reference materials are available as well as subscription to a newsletter, Global Utah.

Zions Business Resource Center
310 South Main Street, North Mezzanine
Salt Lake City, UT 84101
(801) 594-8245
www.zionsbank.com

The Business Resource Center provides the Utah business community, free of charge, access to tools and information to answer business questions and help strengthen new and existing businesses through a publications library, computer workstations and personal assistance. Partnering with the Governor's Office of Economic Development and the Small Business Administration, the BRC offers seminars, workshops and business-networking opportunities. Also, the Salt Lake City SCORE chapter is currently co-located in the center. The BRC publishes "The Daily Pulse" which compiles the day's business news from local and national reputable sources.

