- 6:05 pm Police report
- 6:10 pm City Council Member: District 4 – Luke Garrott
SLC Community Liaison: District 4 – Joyce Valdez
- 6:45 pm Nick Norris with SLC Planning will be present to answer any general questions you may have regarding the planning department and its direction.
- 6:55 pm Mark Cornelius with Cowboy Partners has asked to tell us about a project on the SW corner of 200 S. and 300 E.. It is an 81 unit residential community. This is a permitted use.
- 7:15 pm Robin Zeigler with SLC Planning has been invited to discuss recent activity regarding historic landscape ordinance text changes, the city wide historic preservation plan and conservation districts and how it's going to affect neighborhoods in Central City.
- 7:30 pm Adjourn

Although we meet at the Liberty Senior Center, Central City Neighborhood Council is for every one of all ages and we encourage teenagers as well as adults to attend. We frequently have issues brought before us which require a vote from those in attendance. Only those people who live or own a business within the CCNC boundaries are eligible to vote but remember anyone and everyone is invited to attend.
