Salt Lake City Council Neighborhood Outreach Meeting in Council District One and Open House for the Northwest Multi-Purpose Community Center Plans

[Salt Lake City, Utah] - For the second year, the City Council has been holding some of their meetings in neighborhoods throughout the City. This gives the City Council a chance to hear from individuals residing in these neighborhoods.

The Salt Lake City Council will be holding its regularly scheduled Council meeting in District One on Tuesday, August 21, 2007 at 7:00 p.m. at the Day-Riverside Library located at 1575 West 1000 North. The first 30 minutes of the meeting will be reserved for the public to make comments regarding any City related issue or concern and are limited to two minutes.

An agenda will be available 24 hours in advance at: www.slcgov.com/council/agendas or call the City Council Office at 535-7600 to request a copy.

This meeting will broadcast on Salt Lake City cable television Channel 17 on a delayed basis. An audio/video link to the meeting will also be available within a couple of days following each meeting for view through the City Council's webpage: www.slcgov.com/council.

In addition, an open house regarding the plans for the Northwest Multi-Purpose Community Center (plans include both recreation center and the senior center) will take place at the Day-Riverside Library from 5:30 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. A Salt Lake County Official and architect will be available to provide information and answer questions for the public.
