

THE WORLDWIDE INFLUENCE OF WOMEN FOR PEACE~ ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

DATE AND LOCATION: Thursday, October 8th from 7:00 to 8:00 pm in the Salt Lake City Library auditorium, 400 South 200 East

SPONSORS: Salt Lake City Mayor's Office of Diversity and Human Rights, Salt Lake City Mayor's Office of Education Partnership, Worldwide Organization for Women, The Barbara and Norman Tanner Center for Nonviolent Human Rights Advocacy at the University of Utah, and The Peace and Conflict Studies Program at the University of Utah

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Asha Hagi Elmi Amin, the only woman on the Peacemaking Task Force of Somalia and Chair of the Save Somali Women and Children non-profit organization, will speak of her experiences in peacemaking and of her program for women and girls. Because October 8th is Global Literacy Day, Asha will speak of illiteracy as a human rights issue.

ADMISSION IS FREE
