Volunteers are needed for National Trails Day on June 6th, 2009!

In celebration of the 10th Anniversary of the Bonneville Shoreline Trail, vigorous volunteers are needed to help repair erosion damage on the Morris Meadows section of the trail above City Creek Canyon in Salt Lake City.

There will also be guided walks with local naturalists exploring the foothills ecosystem and an invasive weed pull.

The Saturday event will begin at 8AM. Registration is required. To register or for more information, visit <http://www.bonnevilleshorelinetrail.org/> A light breakfast and snacks will be provided to all pre-registered volunteers!

This event held in partnership with The Bonneville Shoreline Trails Committee, REI, the Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest, the Utah Museum of Natural History, the Cottonwood Canyons Foundation and Salt Lake City.
